Discover Veszprém

Veszprém (Hungarian pronunciation: ['vespre:m]; German: Weißbrunn, Slovene: Belomost) is one of the oldest urban areas in Hungary, and a city with county rights. It lies approximately 15 km (9 mi) north of the Lake Balaton. It is the administrative center of the county (comitatus or 'megye') of the same name. Veszprém lies on both sides of the Séd creek, approximately 110 km (68 mi) from Budapest. According to legend, Veszprém was founded on seven hills. The seven hills are Várhegy (Castle Hill), Benedek-hegy (St. Benedict Hill), Jeruzsálem-hegy (Jerusalem Hill), Temetőhegy (Cemetery Hill), Gulyadomb (Herd Hill), Kálvária-domb (Calvary Hill), and Cserhát.

Travelling by car

Veszprém can be easily reached by car from various directions. Please note that the use of motorways and expressways in Hungary (road numbers beginning with M, such as the M7) generally requires a valid e-vignette (highway toll sticker).
